

This is possible

- Your employees enjoy using CRM tools
- All important processes within the value chain run smoothly
- The teams work together successfully across divisions
- Your employees make maximum use of the tools

It is intended for

- Companies that have just introduced new software or are dissatisfied with current software usage

What we offer

- We train your employees and teams along the processes and the entire value chain.
- We look at all the important skills of your employees. This includes communication, collaboration, software usage and their attitude and attitude.

This is your personal contribution

- Time, space and openness for education and/or training
- Patience and understanding that only through continuous training and coaching can software usage behaviour be permanently improved.

This is your monetary contribution

- Development of an education and training concept tailored to your needs: between 20.000 € and 25.000 €*
- between 2.500 € and 4.500 €* per employee and 12 months
- Depending on scope and effort

*All amounts are net amounts plus VAT. - subject to modifications

