

Where is the journey to go?

- Can ballast be detected and dropped?
- How can I lead and motivate my team in this phase?
- How do I best reach my customers?
- Which strategies need to be adapted, which course to set?
- What measures must be taken?

„Even as our social lives may have slowed down, for MarTech stack leaders, professional lives have sped up. They're facing demands to make decisions faster, partly in response to shifting customer/client behaviors.“

– Tony Byrne (Real Story Group)
